- ❖ If you go with a partner or date, discuss before hand how you'll handle cruising or being cruised by other people.
- ❖ Be friendly and flirty. Do not stick with a large group of friends all night. Walk around by yourself. You are not going to pick up or get picked up if you are surrounded by a posse. Take a chance and chat up that cute girl in the whirlpool. If everyone is afraid to make the first move, then nothing is going to happen.
- ❖ Offer and receive rejection graciously. If you are the one turning down, be kind and polite. If you get turned down, try not to take it personally. She might be shy, or coupled, or not into what you are into. You are there to find exactly what you want. There are other girls who will be interested.
- ❖ You will run into at least 30 people that you know. Be discreet and don't gossip about the goings-on later. No one feels comfortable playing if she's worried that her exploits will be the talk of the town.
- ❖ Be playful: Dress-up, bring toys, a partner or two and anything else that will increase your (and other people's) pleasure.
